Museum of London Workshops on the Great Fire of London

One of our favourite museums at Heber Primary School is the Museum of London at the Barbican. Teachers that have been at Heber School for a while will have happy memories of taking classes there to learn about the history of London. However, it has been a few years since we have been there, firstly because of the Covid-19 pandemic and then more recently because the museum has been shut for the past couple of years as it is relocating to a new location. Excitingly, the education team at the Museum of London reached out to our school as they wanted to trial the new workshop they are planning to run at the new site on the Great Fire of London. Our Year 2 have been the first children in the country to test out some of the activities that the team will be including, such as: handling artefacts including an actual burnt brick from Pudding Lane! The children got to test out games, quizzes, drama activities and art and craft activities. It was so much fun and helped really bring the Great Fire of London to life for the children. The team from the Museum are now going to take the children's feedback to create a final version of the workshop and they will be back in June when our children will be the first to take part in the new workshop.

School Council update

We received an exciting letter in the post over Easter. It was a thank you from Chelsea and the team at 'Make A Wish' for our fundraising at Christmas time. Our next fundraising event is Friday May 16th May. We will be hosting a Break the Rules Day! We will be sharing some rules that Heber children will be able to break (20p per rule they break or £2 in order to break all 10 rules we share.) See next week's issue to find out the rules you will be able to break for the day. However, our golden rules of 'We are Ready, We are Respectful and We are Safe' are untouchable and still have to be followed!

Heber SEND Tips

This week: Dyslexia support

Do you have concerns about your child's reading or spelling? Perhaps you're wondering about dyslexia, looking for ways to support homework and revision, or unsure where to start. Bell House is offering free, 1:1 advice surgery for parents to speak with an experienced dyslexia specialist. These 25-minute in-person sessions are a chance to ask questions, share concerns, and receive tailored guidance on support at home, talking to school, screening, assessments, and more.

Upcoming dates: 26th April, 7th June, 21st June, 12th July.

Sessions are very popular – if fully booked, Bell House recommend joining the waiting list by emailing dyslexia@bellhouse.co.uk with your name, phone number, and child's year group.
