This week in the Art Room...

Issue number: 13 Friday 5th December 2025

Congratulations to all the children that entered the UK Parliament Pride In Place competition.

Florence, Ronja, Sienna and Noa received FIRST PRIZE in the 'Best Sculpture' category and Albert C received a certificate from the Houses of Parliament as did all the entrants. A huge well done for taking the time to create something for this competition! The winners have been invited to visit the Houses of Parliament in the Spring.

Year 1 enjoyed sculpting trees to go with their 3D inspired bird's nests.

Year 2 are very excited to begin their Art Heroes portrait and have now decided which art hero they will use to inspire them.

Year 6 have completed their Mayan inspired mod roc masks and are now creating a contemporary style mask of their own design.

Year 6 – Junior Citizenship trip

Over the last two weeks, Year 6 attended the Southwark Junior Citizenship Scheme whereby the children took part in a carousel of small-group interactive workshops covering a wide range of messages and life skills supporting children as they become more independent. The workshops were run by various agencies including TFL, the London Fire Brigade, the London Ambulance Service, Southwark Council Road Safety and the Metropolitan Police.

3W Trip to the Natural History Museum

On Monday, 3W had an action-packed adventure at the Natural History Museum, building on everything we've learned this term in our geography topic "Why do people live near volcanoes?" We transformed into real scientists, racing to save a town from a volcanic catastrophe in an exciting live show filled with eruptions, rumbling quakes and dramatic decisions. After that, we travelled "through" the Earth's core, braved an earthquake simulator, and explored an incredible collection of rocks, crystals and fossils to link with our science learning on rocks and soils. We even spotted the famous Cheddar Man from our Stone Age history lessons—and to top it all off, we met a very festive T-rex proudly sporting a Christmas jumper and hat!

Update from the P&F:

Whoop, whoop, it's the Winter Fair this Saturday, from midday! We hope you are looking forward to it. Thank you to everyone who is volunteering on the various stalls and entertainments.

Some of the delights to look forward to include Santa's Grotto, games, a bake sale, the raffle, jolly jam jars, a second hand toy sale, food to keep you energised and of course a well-stocked bar with pale ale/lager on tap, mulled wine, various other tipples and soft drinks too.

Please remember to bring in donations of toys, Christmas jumpers, jolly jam jars and anything for the bake sale and drop them at reception, today.

Raffle tickets are also on sale now, via Arbor and there are some really fantastic prizes (poster below).

In other news:

We held the first Wreath Making Workshop on Tuesday this week, which raised over £1200 for the school. There was much seasonal jolliness with mulled wine, sausage rolls and mince pies and we'll look to do this again next year. There are a few photos of the event below.

Finally, a big thank you to all those who signed up to have one of the Winter Fair boards outside your houses, which should have all now been put up.

Best wishes
