This Week in the Art Room

Issue number: 13

14th December 2018

What an exciting week our artists have had working in all sorts of media and really enjoying the making process, it has been such a sight to behold. 1L artists demonstrated incredible cutting and construction skills to form their individual Autumn / Winter trees out of cardboard tubes, paper straws and wood offcuts (kindly donated by a parent). We carefully considered the shapes and lines of different types of trees, from the London Plane to a Christmas tree of course!

2B artists explored how art can be even more playful, inspired by graphic designer Morag Myerscough, they hid behind work produced last week and created more graphic facial features through collage and plasticine. The detail that 2B noticed and recreated within their hand held plasticine portraits was exceptional!

Football Match – Friday December 7th versus Judith Kerr Primary

A week ago our girls' football team was severely trounced by our German speaking neighbours -Judith Kerr Primary. This time it was our boys who took the field to face the children from this school or die kinder von dieser Schule.

The location was no longer the Somme-like mud caked expanses of Dulwich Sports Ground, it was the derelict AstroTurf behind Dulwich Hamlet football club (and the big Sainsburys on Champion Hill). A bit of a windy wasteland, but at least there was no mud.

Keeping the weak German references going: If last week was Dunkirk, this week was D-Day. Our allied forces overpowered the enemy. The players flew around like Spitfires. The opponents' goal was strafed with numerous shots. The adversary's coach could be heard shouting encouragement and instructions in a thick Bavarian accent. But nothing could unsettle the focused Heber boys. They produced a performance that echoed England in 1966 (or is that 1066?). Indeed, it was more like the time, in 2001, when England crushed Germany 5-1 (in Germany!) and we all believed that we had somehow become the best team in the world!

The Heber players were exceptional. They more or less did their own team talk and arranged their positions by themselves. It was a great collective effort, everyone positive, everyone encouraging. The final result of 4-0 to Heber was not a true reflection; we had over 25 shots on goal to our opponents two shots.

Although it is not gracious to talk about revenge, this match, nevertheless, was revenge.

Judith Kerr School were lovely and there is hope to play them at other sports in the future.

Many thanks to Louis' dad who gave great advice and was a great referee.

Well done to all the team: Spencer, Ethan, Reuben, Thomas, Luke, Gibril, Arif, Kaynun and Louis.

Shakespeare's Globe Project

Year 3 have been working in Partnership with The Globe Theatre, learning the story of Julius Caesar. As well as completing a range of drama workshops the children have produced writing inspired by the sessions. This piece below has been written by Miller in 3DP. It is a eulogy for the character Brutus, written in role as Mark Anthony. The children had to use their understanding of the relationships between the characters and the actions of each character to inform their writing.

People of Rome please, please lend me your ears.

I come to tell of Brutus.

He is honourable and selfless yet naïve.

When Rome sobbed he have wept.

You all once fought beside him.

This was the noblest Roman of all.

By Miller (3DP)

Weekly Music Awards

The following awards were announced in our weekly Merit Assembly.

KS1: The Key Stage 1 music stars of the week are Rosa and Alec of 2L, based on their reading and playing of music from the stave. They are playing with the skill and the musicianship of a young Ana Vidovic and a young Peter Gabriel respectively, and hearing them play you can tell they both have a gift for music. Eres fabuloso!

Lower Key Stage 2: Imogen in 4D and Josie in 4E are our Lower Key Stage 2 music stars of the week. With voices like angels and determination to succeed, they really are the gold standard in musical terms. I am inspired every time I see and hear them in the music lessons and singing assemblies, and cannot wait to see how much further they progress with music. Excepcional!

Upper Key Stage 2: Our Upper Key Stage 2 music star of the week is Isaac in 5S. In terms of musical progress, no one can hold a candle to him. In my group practice and in the whole class performance this week, he showed how far he has come with an accurate, excellent rendition of our class song. When you get to hear him play, I'm sure you'll love it as much as I did. Feliz

A Special Stall at the Fair

At the Christmas fair we created a stall to raise money for Mr. Neve-Dunn's mini bus. As you may know his mini bus was stolen and now people have to walk to matches, even if they are quite far! It also means that Mr. Neve-Dunn can't take us to as many matches against other schools at the moment. We managed to raise £72.90 to go towards getting a new mini bus selling bits and bobs on our stall. Every penny counts! Thank you to everyone who supported us.

By Clara, Ella, Ellen and Emma 6K

Well done girls, we are very proud of you for all your hard work and dedication Thank you!

P&F Christmas Fair

The Heber P&F would like to say a massive THANK YOU for coming along to the Christmas Fair last Saturday. It was an afternoon of festive fun and activities. We are also really grateful for all of your donations and for your help and support before, during and after the fair - We couldn't do it without you.

A Message from the Music Team

Here at Heber we are almost at the end of our festive seasonal run of Christmas plays. The Early Years play was simply phenomenal and I'm sure the children won't mind me saying that they were singing the songs from the show after the incredible dress rehearsal we saw (well, I hope they won't mind me saying it). Our Year 1 and Year 2 learners performed probably the best Key Stage 1 Christmas play I've seen, and the singing and actions were enjoyed by all. Our Lower Key Stage 2 play was hilarious and the songs with their complicated structures and numerous, wordy verses were performed so beautifully and comically. Particular joyous praise to Joe with his astonishing solo to start proceedings; incredible. Next up are our superstar Year 5 and Year 6 children, and, based on their rehearsals, the singing, choreography and performing is going to be breath-taking.

Stars of the Week

Every Friday staff pick their Stars of the Week from each class. The children can earn this prestigious award for demonstrating one of our core values; Responsibility, Resilience and Thoughtfulness.

Congratulations to the following children who were chosen as the Star of the Week in Merit Assembly this week:

Reception – Matilda (Rec E) and Luther (Rec C)

Year 1 – Aaliyah (1L) and Daniel (1H)

Year 2 – Esther (2B)
